

Downton Abbey: Match the Quote

"If you're tired of style, you're tired of life."

Anna

Cora

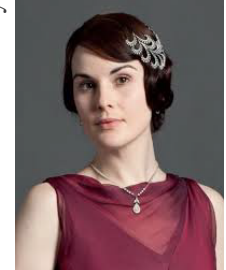

"Something happening in this house is actually about me."

Mr. Carson

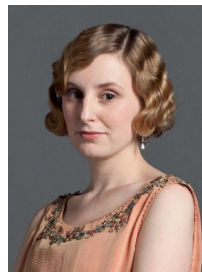

Mary

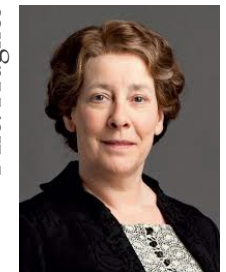

"Don't feel sorry for me Mrs. Hughes. I know what real love is and there are not many who can say that. I'm one of the lucky ones."

Edith

Mrs. Hughes

"Gah! What a relief to have a drink in public. Down with prohibition!"

"Haven't you heard? I don't have a heart. Everyone knows that."

"I'm not foul Mr. Carson. I'm not the same as you, but I'm not foul."

Mrs. Patmore

Robert

"Do I look like a frolicker?"

"Just because you're an old widow, I see no necessity to eat off a tray."

"We must all have our hearts broken once or twice before we're done."

Thomas

Dowager Countess

"No one tells you about raising daughters. You think it will be like Little Women, but instead they're at each other's throats."
